

Senses Cards

touch

sight

smell

taste

hear

Cut these out and place in a bag. Ask the children to choose a card and then focus on that sense as they explore the environment. They could also team up with someone and focus on two senses at the same time. How does that change the experience? Do some senses work better together than others?