

Simple and compound sentences

Please write either 'simple' or 'compound' on the line at the end of the sentence. Underline the conjunction if there is one.

Exercise 1

1. Stephen must study. _____
2. Stephen is going to take a test. _____
3. The test is on Friday. _____
4. Stephen will probably do well on the test, but he needs to study hard.

5. The test will be very difficult, so his dad has promised to buy him an ice cream afterwards. _____

Exercise 2

1. Jill is going to Spain and Portugal for her holidays. _____
2. Jill's grandma lives in Spain. _____
3. Jill loves going to Spain and Portugal every summer for two weeks.

4. Jill will take a plane to get there or her friend may decide to drive her there.

5. Jill likes traveling so she can watch movies on her tablet.

Exercise 3

1. Grandma Judy loves Minecraft. _____
2. Grandma Judy doesn't visit any of her grandchildren anymore, nor does she see any of her friends. _____
3. Grandma Judy played Minecraft yesterday and she forgot to make breakfast.

4. Grandma Judy's eyes are tired from playing Minecraft.

5. I told Grandma Judy that she must stop playing Minecraft or she will have an accident. _____