

NEWSPAPER HEADLINES

DIRECTIONS: Read the story summaries on this worksheet and then write a headline for each one. Remember that a good headline tells you what the story is about, grabs your attention and leaves you wanting to know more.

Your local park ranger has asked for help to raise £2,000 for a new fence to help keep deer in the park. The ranger says that the deer are running across the road and he is afraid that the deer will get hit by passing cars and that people might get injured.

HEADLINE

Dan TDM says he is excited about the Olympics being held in Liverpool, near where he grew up. The Minecraft master said that he thinks the game should be included in the Olympics and he would love to take part. He thinks he would definitely get a gold medal!

HEADLINE

3) Justin Bieber has been born in Singapore. I know you're thinking, what do you mean?! Don't worry, it's not the 'Sorry' singing blonde who once graced television screens for Disney and is now covered in tattoos. This little baby is yet to talk, let alone sing and his parents say they have always loved the name Justin and have never heard of the famous singer.

HEADLINE

Discuss the headlines. Which is your favourite? Why?