

Word Classes

Aeneas ran quickly through the smoky rooms. He caught his young son Lulus by the hand, heaved his old father on to his back, and ran for the harbour. He shouted for his household to follow.

noun

adjective

verb

adverb

Can you remember what each term means?

Can you find an example of each in the text above?