

Scenarios

People have started throwing their rubbish into the sea.

It is polluting the sea and making fish die.

A queen is burning the scrolls of wisdom in the library to make room for treasures.

The guardians of the scrolls are asking for help.

A tribe is being attacked and their homes are being destroyed.

They don't know if they should fight back or not.

A farmer has set fire to his neighbour's vineyard.

The victim is asking for help.

A king has decided that he is more powerful than the sun.

He is building a giant shade to block it out.

People have begun to chop down a special woodland to make room for a new bath house.

It is scaring away the animals that the gods like to hunt.