

Book activities!

Choose the three most important events from a book and turn them into a comic strip	Create a WANTED poster for a character from a book. Include a description, what they did, and a reward.
Write about what happens at the beginning, middle and end of a story.	Write about your favourite part of your story and explain why you like it.
Create a quiz of at least five questions about a book. (Make sure you know the answers!)	Find a part of a story which doesn't have a picture. Draw a picture to go with that part of the story.
Make puppets for characters in your story.	Design a different front cover for a book that you know well.
Make a fact file about a topic from your book.	Make a poster to encourage others to read your book.
Rewrite the ending of your story.	Write a set of instructions for how to use an object in the book.
Make a 'reading den' and read inside it	Read the beginning of a new story and invent the middle and the ending.
Write a letter or email to one of the characters from a story.	Write a letter or an email to the author of a story.
Describe a character that you would like to meet from a story. Write five questions you would ask them if you met.	Fold a piece of paper into six equal pieces. Sequence the story by drawing and writing the story in order.

