

Colour code these facts to match up to the 5 land use zones.

1. Leisure and entertainment facilities	2. Large detached houses with garages	3. Very few driveways	4. Most expensive houses
5. Shops and offices	6. Semi-detached houses with gardens	7. Newest	8. Grew in response to increased car ownership
9. High-rise flats may now replace some run-down areas	10. Parks and open spaces	11. Lots of public transport links	12. Oldest
13. Tall high density buildings	14. Cheapest housing	15. Land is cheaper	16. Terraced housing
17. Some garages	18. Modern out-of-town shopping centres	19. High value land	20. Industry