

SUBJECT: GEOGRAPHY

YEAR: FOUR

PART: THREE

STEP	TOPIC	OBJECTIVES
25	Types of settlement	To be able to describe the key features of hamlets, villages, towns and cities. To be able to identify each type of settlement from photos and maps.
26	Where did early settlers choose to live?	To learn about the characteristics of early settlements.
27	Settlement patterns and hierarchy	To be able to identify three different settlement patterns - linear, dispersed and nucleated. To understand what a settlement hierarchy is.
28	My local area settlement assignment	To apply the knowledge learnt in the past three lessons to your local area.
29	Land use in cities	To know the main land uses found in cities and to understand that different land uses are found in different parts of the city.
30	Where should Dave move to?	To understand the benefits of different zones of the city and to make a decision about which zone would suit Dave best.

31	Design a settlement	To understand the process involved in planning a new settlement. To make planning decisions and to be able to give reasons for those decisions.
32	Assignment: Design a settlement	To understand the process involved in planning a new settlement. To make planning decisions and to be able to give reasons for those decisions.
33	Problems of cities in rich countries	To understand that as cities grow, they can develop problems such as traffic congestion, pollution, over-crowding and noise.
34	Problems of cities in poorer countries	To understand that cities in poorer countries are very different from cities in richer countries. To understand some of the problems of life in a favela.
35	Sustainable cities	To introduce the concept of sustainability and to look at ways in which cities can be made more sustainable.
36	Assignment: Cities of the future	To imagine what cities might look like in the future. To apply the concepts of sustainability to future cities.